Denver Online welcomes our guests who are interested in attending our school dances/events. It is our responsibility to ensure that our students and their guests fully understand the rules and regulations before attending and understand how to behave appropriately and accordingly. Guests may be asked to submit a copy of his/her driver's license or student ID.

We require the DOHS student and guest to read and sign the statement below:

"I understand, that as a guest, that I am under Administrative Supervision. With this, I agree to abide by all rules, including dress code and the code of conduct, while on campus and while attending the event stated above. I also understand that if I fail to uphold the terms of this agreement, that my parents (if 18 and under) may be contacted and I will be asked to leave the premises or may be subject to additional consequences, depending on the nature of the infraction. I further understand that this may also affect my friend's ability to attend the event and future events."
